

Lucina
South Asia

Abducted and forced to marry, escaped in 2020

Lucina

Abducted and forced to marry, Lucina was repeatedly raped in a false marriage. Months went by while she held against her will and unable to escape. Thankfully, Lucina was able to get her hands on a cell phone and was rescued. She was malnourished, mistreated, and abused. Soon after she discovered that she was pregnant. Today, Lucina asks for your prayers for her protection and future. Lucina's story represents thousands of Christian women who are forced into marriages as a form of extreme persecution every year. Would you pray for Lucina and the thousands of women like her who are held captive in forced marriages?

"Pray for me. I need protection and I am trying to forget everything. Pray that everything will be okay again, though I know it is hard."

—Lucina

Visit www.onewiththem.ca to download postcards of other Christian captives.