Amir-Ali Minaei

Amir-Ali Minaei, a 31-year-old, is serving a sentence of three years and seven months for “propaganda activities against the regime through establishing a house-church” simply for meeting together with fellow believers. He was recently diagnosed with a heart condition that is understood to have been caused directly by the stress he was placed under during his initial detention. Amir-Ali applied for conditional release for medical reasons but his request was blocked.

Pray for Amir-Ali’s health, and for his release.
