

Leah Sharibu

Nigeria

Kidnapped by Boko Haram in 2018

Leah Sharibu

On February 19, 2018, 14-year-old Leah Sharibu was kidnapped by Boko Haram from her school in Dapchi, Nigeria, along with approximately 100 other girls. A month later, every girl was released except for Leah because she refused to deny her faith in Jesus Christ. Leah has been declared a slave for life by the extremists who abducted her and she remains in captivity more than 5 years later.

Unfortunately, Leah is just one of hundreds, if not thousands, of missing Christian girls in Nigeria. Please pray for Leah and other girls like her who are being held captive for their faith.