Tara*

A mother of two sons, Tara* is the only believer in her family and has been subjected to abuse by her husband, mother-in-law, and other relatives because of her faith in Jesus Christ. Tara is being closely monitored by her husband and in-laws and is being held captive at her home, preventing her from meeting, or contacting other believers. Due to continuous threats and abuse, she is experiencing severe mental distress. In February, Tara endured a brutal physical assault at the hands of her husband.

Pray for Tara's healing and that the Lord will bring her comfort.
